

CONTACT:

Chad Hart
Marcus Communications
860-646-1839

MARCUS SPONSORS 40th ANNIVERSARY POLICE COMMISSIONERS ASSOCIATION MEETING

New Haven, CT (December 18, 2002) – Manchester-based Marcus Communications sponsored the 40th Anniversary Meeting of the Connecticut Police Commissioners Association Meeting. The meeting comprised of over 60 Police Commissioners, Chiefs and Support Staff of Municipal Police Departments from around the State of Connecticut. The featured speaker was Robert H. Rasor, Director of Corporate Security for General Electric Company in Fairfield. The event's social hour was sponsored by Marcus Communications.

“The PCACT meeting is a great forum for Police Officials to discuss important issues related to public safety and we were pleased to be a part of it,” stated Marcus Communications CEO, Stephen Marcus. “This was a great opportunity for Marcus to gain support for our Homeland Defense solutions.”

More information can be accessed from the PCACT web site at <http://www.nearhome.com/ct/pfact/events/meet12-17-02/index.htm>.

With over 33 years experience in the industry, Marcus Communications is known throughout the area for its creative communications solutions. Marcus currently provides radio communications services to clients such as Six Flags Amusement Park, Foxwoods Casino, small industrial and service businesses, and dozens of municipal, police and fire departments.